In January 1997, Commonwealth Yacht Club hosted a Winter Wonderland Party and Birthday Celebration weekend which ended on Sunday evening, January 26, with its first Super Bowl Party. I can remember eating so much Lobster Tempura that weekend; I worried about becoming a crustacean.

The CYC calendar for 1997 was filled with a special activity for every month of the year.

Pier Captains were appointed by the board of directors for the purpose of spreading the word of ongoing activities at CYC.

The theme for the Hunter's Moon Boat Parade was "Tie One On", referring to knots used in boating, of course.

The years of 1998 and 1999 continued rather peacefully with changes in management personnel but few changes in activities within the club.

The end of 1999 and the New Years Eve Party was one to remember with black and silver eyestopping decorations and music from the amazing band "This Is It", featuring Ava and Eddie Joyner from Nashville. Standing room only for tuxedo clad gentlemen and their glittering ladies!

The new millennium brought with it some essential state mandates that CYC must follow in order to resume its status as a private yacht club.

As a reminder, here are those mandates which continue to remain in effect:

CYC may not sell alcoholic beverages.

Only members may bring alcoholic beverages to the club.

According to KY state law, no one under the age of 21 is allowed to sit at the bar or to be in the bar area of the club.

Beverages in bottles must remain at the bar & are not to be at tables, excluding chilling wine.

CYC also began the year of 2000 with its first Lady Commodore: Molly Blom.

In August, 2000, CYC monthly dues were raised to $25.

In 2001 station flags were presented to each officer and are to be used at the office rs table when he/she attends the club for dinner.

Also in 2001, CYC abandoned the October Lighted Boat Parade and replaced it with the newly created "end of July Lighted Festival". The event was quite successful, but very hot.

HAPPY SPRING!!!!!!

We hope to see you soon at the Club, in the Marina, or just on the water.....
